Cincinnati Museum

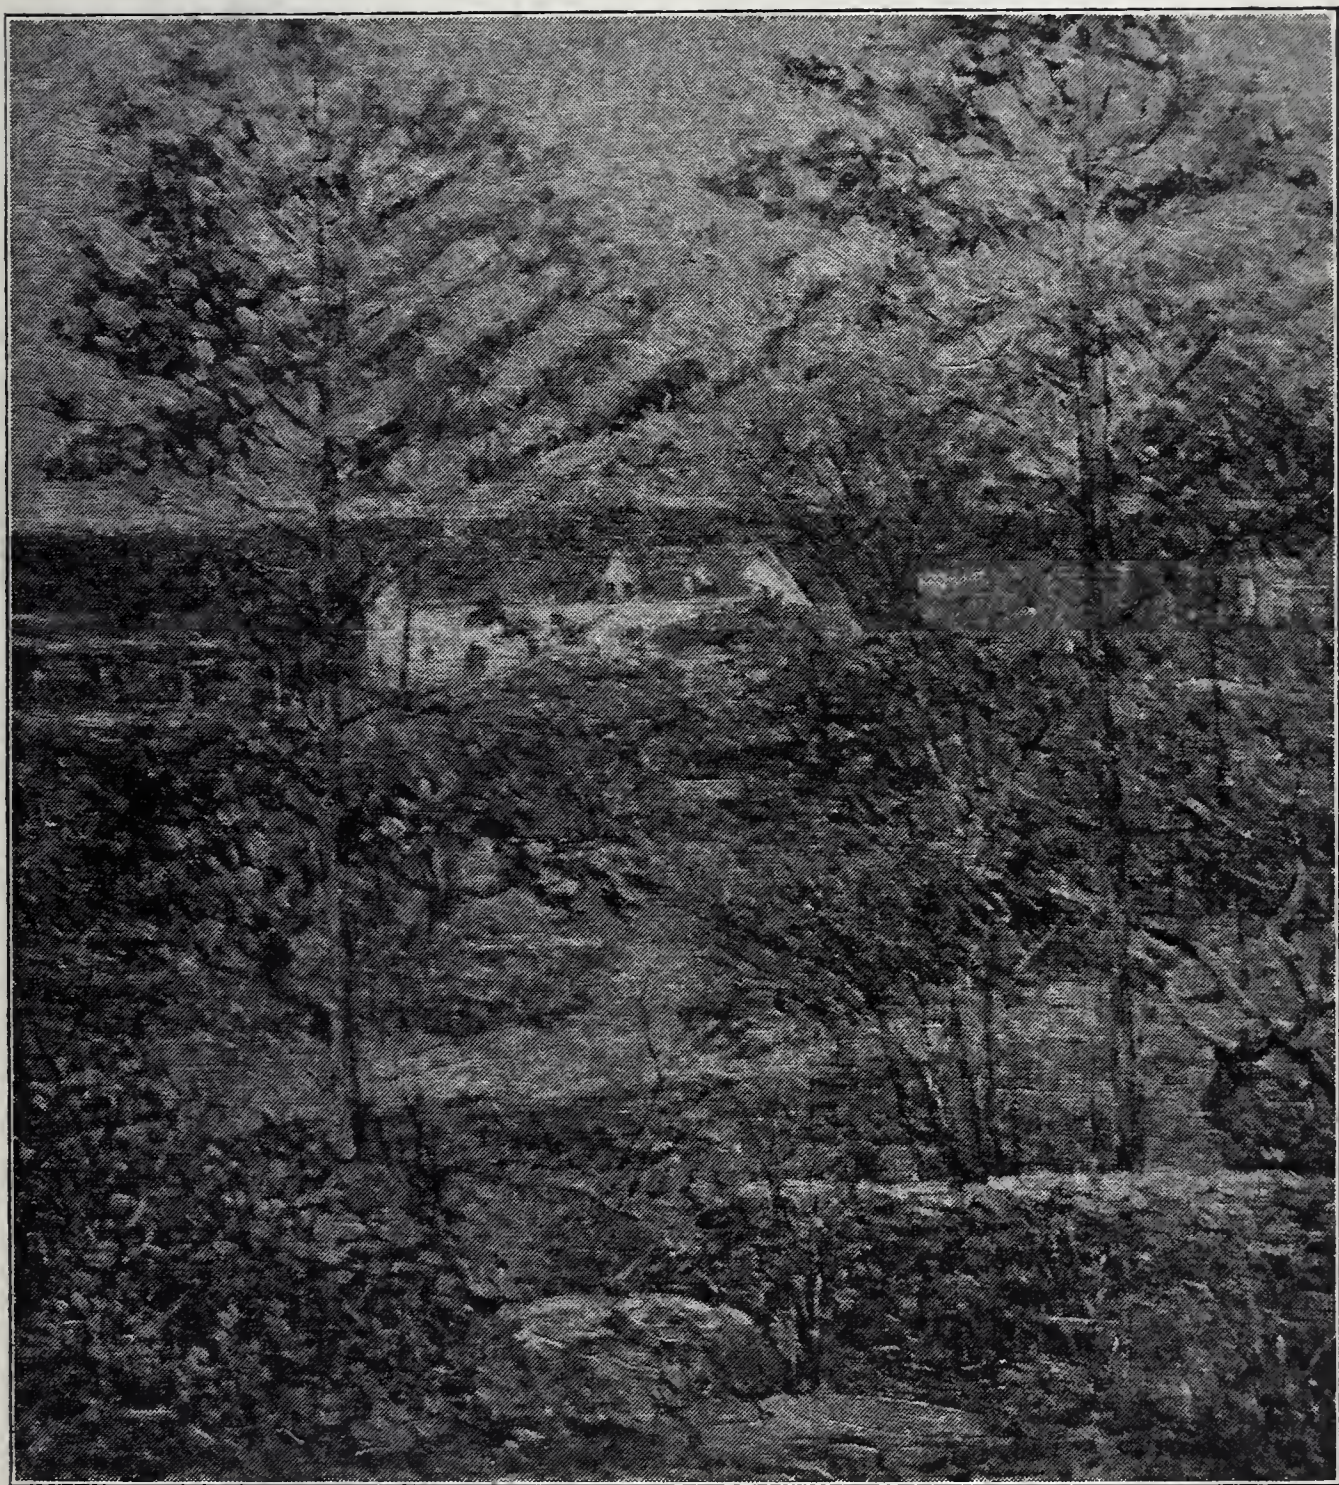

SPECIAL EXHIBITION OF
PAINTINGS AND PASTELS
BY CHARLES S. KAELIN

ART MUSEUM : EDEN PARK
January 11th to February 2nd : 1913

Number one

MR. KAELIN was born in Cincinnati and with the exception of some temporary absences has always lived here. He was a student in the old School of Design and has worked altogether in this country. His temperament is very much that of the experimenter and student having more interest in doing things than in calling attention to them so that outside of a somewhat limited circle his work is not so well known as its quality would warrant. It is characterized by great sincerity, a very finely trained observation, strong draughtsmanship and a refined and distinct individuality of expression. ❧ ❧ ❧ ❧
